

Terms of Business, Disclosure of Interests & Written Estimate.

A written estimate will always be provided after the funeral arrangements have been made. By signing the estimate, the client agrees they are entering into a legal agreement with Fairways Funeral Directors Limited and they accept our terms and conditions.

We do request that a payment of 50% of the total funeral costs is paid 24 hours after the funeral arrangements have been made. Failure to do so may result in the funeral service being delayed. The final invoice will be sent to you 2 days after the funeral service has taken place. Payments can be paid by BACS, cash, credit or debit card.

Unfortunately, American Express cannot be accepted. No discounts can be given for early payments. Should full payment not be received 21 days as per agreement, we do reserve the right to charge 2% interest on balance owed. We may need to pass on client details to debt recovery agencies which costs will be passed onto the client should this course of action be necessary.
